

CONSTITUTION 101

Dates: Six Consecutive Wednesdays, February 22 – March 29, 2017
Time: 6:30 – 8:30 pm.
Location: Saxony Hall – 13362 Pennington Road, Fishers, IN 46037 (map)
Students: Students will receive a copy We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution textbook, a course binder and an American Legacy Pocket Constitution booklet.

Space is limited. Register early! Click to register: Constitution 101

Constitution 101 Course Content:

- Week 1 (Feb. 22) What Are the Philosophical and Historical Foundations of the American Political System?
- Week 2 (Mar. 1) How Did the Framers Create the Constitution?
- Week 3 (Mar. 8) How Has the Constitution Been Changed to Further the Ideals Contained in the Declaration of Independence?
- Week 4 (Mar.15) How Have the Values and Principles Embodied in the Constitution Shaped American Institutions and Practices?
- Week 5 (Mar. 22) What Rights Does the Bill of Rights Protect?
- Week 6 (Mar. 29) What Challenges Might Face American Constitutional Democracy in the Twenty-first Century?

Instructor: Robert Leming, National Director of the We the People Program for the Center for Civic Education, Civic Education Consultant for the Indiana Bar Foundation and Professor of Graduate Studies at Kansas State University

Sponsors: The Center for Civic Education, the Business Law Section of the Indiana Bar Association, the Indiana Bar Foundation, the City of Fishers, Perception Access, Inc., Mike and Cecilia Coble, and Scott and Brenda Berkel