

To request your official lab report – you'll need to login to your patient portal using your access code and patient portal link sent to you via email and/or sms.

For any questions, please call (317) 595-3211.

English

Please enter your Access Code. If you never received the email with the subject "COVID-19: Patient Portal Login", please click "Please resend my access code."

Do you need to be resent your access code?

Please resend my access code

View your result, scroll to the bottom:

Do you need a copy of your results report?

Yes

No

If you need your official lab result for work or travel, please select yes. Please only request once and allow for 1-2 business days to receive results via email.

After you've selected yes, you will be logged out of your patient portal and it will look like this:

For any questions, please call (317) 595-3211.

English ▼

You may have entered the wrong access code.
Please enter the access code provided in the email or you may ask for your access code to be resent.

Please be mindful that each individual's Patient Portal link is unique. In order to log in, make sure to use the most recent Patient Portal link and access code addressed to you.

Please enter your Access Code. If you never received the email with the subject "COVID-19: Patient Portal Login", please click "Please resend my access code."

Do you need to be resent your access code?

Please resend my access code

